SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

THEME

It is customary to compare life to the seasons of the year. It was done yesterday. It is done today. It will be done tomorrow. So do we compare our High School life here at Saint Michael's to seasons . . . the seasons of a wonderful year. Four seasons, four acts, four changes of costume . . . and never more spectacular than when finally cloaked in Graduation's rich, glowing garb.

Therefore, we have sown, not only in our first year at Saint Michael's, but through the whole course; we have mellowed not only in our second year, but are still mellowing; we have ripened mostly in our first two Senior years, but are well aware that the process is far from ended; and our Fifth and Final Year, with its promise of "later fruits" is the real preparation for the long winter of life, during which we will enjoy the stored knowledge and education of our fruitful seasons and try to dodge the killing frost that nips the roots and anticipate the fall of men. In the meantime let us enjoy the reward of our garnering as our Commencement proceeds.

But in real life there is a co-mingling of all seasons . . . Spring sowing . . . Summer maturing . . . Autumn ripening . . . and . . . Winter granaries filled to the brim.

"Our minds and hearts awake in Spring,
When nature weaves her magic spell,
As buds unfold, a promise bring,
Of later fruits . . . if all goes well."

A Maintenance man, a Math teacher and a group of Seniors catch up with the news in one of several Student Lounges at St. Mike's. Lucky people, huh?

Peter Sturm

Peace and quiet reigns during a study and research session in our beautiful Library under the watchful eye of Father Kelly.

Gregory Tershakowec

We, the graduates of St. Michael's, feel well fortified as a result of our achievements which will be sorely needed to guide and protect us in the daily routine of life. Such routine, similar to a long winter, is now to follow. May we never forget the deep-rooted advice of our teachers, the unsurpassed gardeners of our hearts. "Love and respect to parents and country; above everything else and in all circumstances: Love of Almighty God."

Mrs. Eva Buckley looks lovely with her husband Bill.

Jim Kenney and Cathy Quest on the dance floor.

A few make-up touches here and there has made this dress-up-day almost a grotesque affair.

A GRUB DAY

Mr. Paul Crawford's geography class finds his original make-up rather amusing. He looks like one who is "outstanding" in his field.

A Grade 12 Math Class "takes it easy", as usual, while their teacher snaps their beautiful composure.

Mr. Paul Gauthier and Mr. John Mackle join the fun on one of our "Grub Days".

"Grubbers" along the main corridor during the change of classes. Hectic but orderly, eh what?

Ugh! Your guess is as good as mine. Almost anything can appear on a Grub Day.

Father Mulcahy and Mr. Marlborough join a couple of the tidier "Grubs" for their picture.

A ROCK-NITE

Our Cheerleaders from St. Joseph's College School speak loud and clear to our cheering section at all major sporting events.

There's no time like the present to own a home of the past to make your future beautiful.

You don't have to be "old school" to love old houses. Old house charm has a way of getting straight to the heart.

One of the nicest parts of our job is to bring nice people and old houses together.

We can even help with the olde financing.

If you want a future with a past, call us presently.

Old houses get better with age. The craftsmen of yesterday saw to it.

IT ALL STARTED JUST ABOUT HERE.

entrance to store (left) and tower (right)

Over a hundred years ago, Timothy Eaton opened the small shop that grew into a coast-to-coast network. And now, just a few yards from where he began, the new Toronto Eaton Centre is rapidly rising, destined to become the vital centre of Canada's fastest growing city.

The store is based on solid foundations, not only of concrete and steel, but of the service and integrity that epitomized the first Eaton store.

Eaton's — proud to be growing with Canada.
